The Weight of Testimony is in Favor of the Curableness of Consumption.

"Do you believe that Consumption is a curable disease?" is a question that is often asked. And we would answer without hesitation, Yes. "In any and every stage?" No. Neither do we believe that small-pox, nor rheumatism, nor typhus, nor diptheria, nor quinsy, nor any of the diseases incident to humanity are curable in any stage and under every and all circumstances. But most, if not all, of them are, if taken early and under favorable conditions. So, also, is consumption, whether of the lungs, of the liver, of the bronchia, or of the kidneys. If there be marasmus or wasting away of the general constitution, or only of a function or an organ, it is remediable at the proper time—of course not after it has entirely destroyed the part where its attack has been most vigorous. But whilst the part has a sufficient degree of vitality still existing, then it is curable. Consumption, as understood by most persons, is a disease of the lungs. It consists in tubercular deposits in the lungs, and these are either in an active or latent state. Active when they are taken on suppurative action and discharging matter or pus. Latent when they are in a dormant state, sleeping as it were, and if the constitution is in a depraved condition; their number is gradually added to by fresh depositions from the blood, which, as a river of life, nourishes and rebuilds every part of the body. If the blood is charged with healthy and plastic material, it will invariably carry that material to the wasted energies of the animal economy. If it is charged with tuberculous matter, it will, it must deposit that matter somewhere, and as the lungs are well adapted to the reception of such material, from their peculiar spongy and imbibing qualities, it is more likely to be deposited there than anywhere else; and after deposited, in whatever organ, you have, when brought into action, consumption of that organ. Now, what we propose to do is, to carry out of the system this morbid material which is in the blood, and place the stomach in a condition to digest that blood so that there shall be no more bad blood material to escape into the circulation. We propose to carry off, dissolve and arrest the formation of the tubercle both before and after it gets to the lungs, with DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.

We are perfectly sure it will cure all the recent coughs to which it may be applied. It does so on scientific principles which can be fully demonstrated if need be. But we started out with the proposition, that the burden of proof would rest upon us—tendency we mean—was in favor of the curability of consumption.

Let us see: Aston, in a recent work in 1865, in speaking of the propriety of curing Fistula, apprehending a transition of the disease to the lungs says: "However, it is not every cure that must deter us; we have now ample proof that Phthisis is not the hope, less disease that it was formerly considered, and that after symptoms of pulmonary tubucle have existed, patients recover, and live free from any complaint for many years."

Dr. Chambers, physician to St. Mary's Hospital, London, in a series of lectures as late as 1866, says: "In cases of chronic consumption hope should never be entirely lost. If the remaining portion of the lung has retained life so long, it can retain life longer, and the whole attention can be applied to its conservation. There is no question about the future conduct of the war, if only sufficient time for the enemy can be stopped in their march."

DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP will meet every call of sudden cough. It will re-establish a healthy current of blood. It will carry out through the natural emunctories of the human organism, all depraved and tubercular matter. It will quiet the cough and hinder the development of lung diseases. Reader, we know whereof we write, and can establish it with the unerring testimony of hundreds of our own citizens.

DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP is sold at 140 Wood street, and by most respectable druggists.

Mr. STEVENS modified his bill in several particulars, striking out the sixth section which declared that any State abrogating the provisions of the bill should thereby forfeit its representation.

Mr. STEVENS appealed to Mr. Bingham to withdraw the motion to refer, urging that the bill should first be perfected in the House and then the motion might be received.

MR. BENNETT AND PRINCE ALFRED.

LONDON, Jan. 28.—A correspondence is published to-day, by permission, between James Gordon Bennett and Prince Alfred. The formesis letter is dated December 31st, in which he offered to the Prince, as a New Years gift, the yacht Henrietta, as an acknowledgment of the most cordial reception and unbounded hospitality by all the classes in England to the American yacht men.

The Prince replies under date of January 22d, expressing his grateful appreciation of the kindly feelings and splendid present tendered him, but declining the generous offer, trusting that neither Mr. Bennett's gallant competiors, nor his countrymen at large, will doubt that the Yachtmen of England will less appreciate or less reciprocate the kindly feelings which have prompted the offer. He trusts the Henrietta may long continue in the hands in which she has accomplished so much triumphant success.

"We will do our best to find a rival to her, and I sincerely hope that such friendly rivalry may be the only description of contest in which our respective countries may ever be engaged. It has given us great pleasure to offer a cordial reception to you and your companions while in England, and I feel assured that if my professional duties, in command of one of her Majesty's ship, should ever take me to your shores, I should there meet on the part of my brother seamen with a reception not less hearty than that which we have been happy to afford you here."

Freedmen's Report from North Carolina.

WASHINGTON, January 28, 1867.

VETO OF THE COLORADO BILL.

The President this afternoon returned to the Senate, with his objections, the bill for the admission of Colorado. He vetoes the bill on the ground that the population is only twenty-eight thousand, as appears by the census; and that it is less than that of any other State which has heretofore asked to be admitted; also, on the ground of the evident incongruity of the legislation of the territory and that of Congress, on the subject of the third section, namely: the conditions precedent, of permitting citizens to vote without distinction of race or color; and on the further ground of the legislation proposed for carrying out the provisions of the bill.

The term of one-half of the members of the Territorial Legislature having expired on the 3d instant, the President urges that the questions involved be submitted to the decision of a vote of the people; but says that within the sixty days specified it will be impossible to reach certain portions of the Territory, owing to the obstructions of travel. He says a State applying for admission should have a population of at least the ratio required for Federal representations. These are the principal reasons assigned for vetoing the bill.

LOTTERY AND LIQUOR CASES IN SUPREME COURT.

In the United States Supreme Court today, a decision was rendered in the liquor and lottery cases. Chief Justice Chase read the opinion of the Court in these cases, holding that neither a license under the act of 1866, nor a special tax under the act of 1866, confers upon the party licensed, or who pays the tax, rights not acquired by the laws of the States. There is no conflict of law in the premises, the act of Congress providing for the federal taxation of a business not being inconsistent with the right of a State to tax and regulate such business, carried on within its limits, hence parties, as in the State of New York, in one case, claiming the right to sell lottery tickets contrary to the laws of the States, by virtue of a license from the United States, and parties claiming the right to sell liquor in Massachusetts. Judgments accordingly, one opinion disposing of all cases. No dissenting opinion was read.

FREEDMEN IN NORTH CAROLINA.

Col. Boomford, Acting Assistant Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau at Raleigh reports to Gen. Howard, under date of January 20th, the operations of the bureau in that State during December last. He states the more than ordinary severity of the cold season, together with the entire destitution of labor, has caused much destitution and large demands upon the government. In some parts of the State the scarcity of employment and prevailing destitution has led many of the freed people to embrace the opportunity to contract with a responsible party to go to Texas, Mississippi, Arkansas and Tennessee.

Sometime ago orders were received to break up the settlements of freedmen as rapidly as possible without injury to the freedmen located there. The population of Roanoke Island has been reduced one half since September last.

Colonel Boomford reports favorable progress in the work of education. On the list of December there were in operation 115 schools, with 122 teachers and 3,941 scholars. Since the transferring to the civil courts the authority formerly held by the Bureau, no arrests have been made by its officers, and but few cases of a criminal character have come under their notice, all of which are referred to the proper tribunals.

WOOL STATISTICS.

The statement made to the Senate Committee on Agriculture by J. R. Dodge, Statistician of the Agricultural Department, declares that the annual consumption of unscoured wool in the United States is a little more than one-third of the estimate in the recent special revenue report. Mr. Dodge's estimate makes the total wool supply of the four years ending June 30th, 1865, about 880,000,000 pounds, of which 300,000,000 pounds were produced in this country, 275,000,000 pounds imported, and an equivalent of 220,000,000 pounds introduced as manufactured woolens. It makes the actual consumption of the loyal States during the war at seven pounds per capita, instead of four and a half pounds prior to the war, showing an increase of fifty-five per cent. from the waste of wear and scarcity of cotton.

LAND OFFICE BUSINESS.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has just completed an examination of the lists of selections, previous to vesting titles to M'chigan, amounting to 200,000 acres of land, to aid in building a harbor and ship canal at Portage Lake, Keneva Point, Lake Superior, as authorized by the act of Congress, approved March 3d, 1865.

GENERAL THOMAS' TESTIMONY.

General Thomas has testified before the Congressional Committee appointed to investigate the South Carolina murders, etc. General Thomas testifies that in the Military Department under his command outrages committed upon freedmen by white men are not punished, and there is no prospect for justice for the blacks before the Courts. When asked what remedy he would propose, he replied a supervisionary military power.

NIAGARA SHIP CANAL BILL.

There is no authority for the statement that the President will veto the Niagara ship bill. He has never expressed himself on the proposed measure.

THE CURRENCY BUREAU.

The investigation into the currency bureau, will be concluded to-morrow night. So far no wilful error has been discovered. A few sheets from one package of currency are missing, but may yet be accounted for. No duplicate bonds have been discovered. There is an old discrepancy of sixty thousand dollars in the fractional currency returns which has not yet been traced.

FINANCIAL POLICY.

It is believed in well informed circles that the Secretary of the Treasury favors the proposition now before a committee in Congress to give in payment to the national banks, holding compound interest notes as part of their legal reserves, loan certificates at a lower rate of interest, equal to one-half of their required loan, which reserve is now about two hundred millions of dollars. These will be practically to the banks the same as legal tenders, for they can demand legal tenders for them on ten days' notice.

NEW FIVE CENT PIECES.

Samples of the new five cent pieces have been received at the Treasury Department. Application for the coin must be made to the Mint at Philadelphia.

INEFFICIENT MILITARY OFFICER.

Colonel Carrington, commanding at Fort Reno, New Mexico, has been removed from command. The people there are said to attribute to his inefficiency all the losses by Indian depredations.

APPOINTMENT CONFIRMED.

The Senate has confirmed the nomination of G. S. Hilliard, United States Attorney for the District of Massachusetts.

VOTE ON THE TARIFF.

The final vote in the Senate on the tariff bill, will probably be taken to-morrow.

THE NEBRASKA VETO.

The veto of the Nebraska bill will be sent in to-morrow

The Specials to New York papers:

The extremists have piled up the rates in the tariff bill in the Senate so high that there is a possibility that the bill may fall altogether. Copper has been put at 3 cents per pound, which is equal to 90 per cent. advalorem; zinc 3 cents, when 2½ is practically prohibitory; bituminous coal, which the Committee recommended at 50 cents has been fixed at $1,50, and so on

Resolved, That the committee on City Property be and is hereby instructed to close the Good Intent Engine House, in the Sixth ward, by having the gas turned off, stoves taken down, and doors locked, until such time as the said company re-organize; as soon as the company re-organize they shall receive their regular annual appropriation. Adopted.

Mr. Ford presented a petition from the citizens residing on Center avenue, west, praying for an increase of wages as follows: Captain, from $2,50 to $3 per night; Lieutenants, from $2 to $2,50; Privates, from $2 to $2,50. Referred to Police Committee.

Mr. Brush presented a petition from Mr. Jas. Onslow, praying to be relieved from the payment of paving tax. Referred to Street Committee.

Also, the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That it shall be the duty of the City Solicitor to be present at every meeting of the Select Council for the grading and paving or opening streets, to have a printed or written notice served on him at least ten days before the meeting, and to attend.

Referred to Street Committee.

Mr. Ford offered the following:

Resolved, That we recommend the vacating of that part of Vine street which lies between Center Avenue and Wylie streets, which has been laid out but never opened, and that a petition be presented for the same, signed by all the property holders adjoining, be presented to the Legislature.

Read and referred to the Committee on Streets.

Mr. Reed read an act relative to soliciting passengers in the county, now pending before the Legislature, and offered in connection with it the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That our Senators and Representatives in General Assembly met, are hereby respectfully requested to oppose and defeat House bill No. 52, for the reason that the business is one peculiar to the city, and the expenses of keeping up the levees and municipal legislations, and paid by the corporations, are strictly under the control of the City Councils, and it is refreshingly novel to ask that the license fee be paid into the county Treasury.

Also, a petition for the extension of the Logan's Ferry sewer. Referred to Street Committee.

The Chairman of the Finance Committee presented a report announcing the nomination of J. F. Slagle as City Solicitor, and asking for the payment of sundry bills. The report was accepted and adopted.

The Finance Committee also presented the following ordinances, making appropriations for the ensuing year:

Sec. 1. Be it ordained and enacted by the Mayor Aldermen and Citizens of Pittsburgh, in Select and Common Councils assembled, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same.

That the revenue of said city, for the year 1867, shall be raised by the levy of the several other sources, together with any moneys in the Treasury, not otherwise appropriated, and hereby appropriated for the following purposes:

Another Outrage—Sewickley the Locality—A Negro Violates a White Girl.

Sewickley has, of late, become known as the scene of repeated and aggravated outrages. In July last a colored girl was found foully murdered, having undoubtedly been criminally violated before the fearful final crime. In November a white girl was worse than murdered, having been grossly outraged by, as she alleges, three young men, whose vile lust nearly caused her death as well as her ruin. Other minor offences have, from time to time been committed there, which, though overshadowed by the stupendous proportion of the great crimes mentioned, have still been of no small importance.

Recently the history of another great wrong which was committed in the same locality last summer, has come to our knowledge. The alleged outrage was committed last August, the victim being a poor sooteh girl, between seventeen and eighteen years of age, and the alleged perpetrator being a negro.

We give the statement as it was given by the girl herself last week. She is, as we have said, a young Scotch girl, Agnes Brown by name. She was born in the year 1849, near Edinburgh, Scotland, where she lived with her parents until she was advanced in childhood. She then came with her parents to this country, and resided with them for a time in Brooklyn, N. Y., and subsequently removing with them to the eastern portion of this State, some years since, her parents both died, and she was left a poor orphan, without friends and utterly without means of support, and almost unaware of efforts as lay within the power of a poor, unprotected girl. There was but one thing which she could do, and that she did. She got a situation as domestic in a family, retaining her situation for some time. Last spring she came to Irwin Station and was employed as servant there for two months. She then went to Sewickley and entered the family of a gentleman there as domestic. She lived there some time, and one night went out one evening on an errand, which took her some distance away from home. While passing through a secluded portion of the neighborhood she was met, as she alleges by a colored man, who first accosted her in an offensive manner,

THE CONNELLSVILLE RAILROAD.

Yesterday we made statements respecting negotiations alleged to have been recently had between the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, on the one part, and the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad Company, on the other.. One informant stood in such attitude towards both Companies that we supposed him to be fully informed. Since then a counter statement has been presented by a gentleman high in the confidence of the Connellsville Company.

He avers that no one authoritatively representing the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has been at Baltimore, in conference with the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company; that no negotiations have been attempted by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company to foster the interests of Pittsburgh; that to do so would help create a rival which would take from it the whole business between Pittsburgh, Baltimore and the Southeast, and that the representations made to us were probably intended to aid in defeating the bill pending before the Legislature to relieve the Connellsville Company.

He farther avers that Mr. Garrett's position upon the freight question is, that the laws governing the rates by way of Parkersburgh and Wheeling, and those which rule here are totally different; that the best protection the people of Pittsburgh can have is the active competition which will inevitably exist when the Connellsville line shall be completed, and that all experience shows this to be a real and sufficient safeguard.

The freight taken by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad from Parkersburg and Wheeling is received from other lines and carried at a through rate from the point at which it originates. This through rate is what the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, according to our first informant attempted to fix on the Baltimore and Ohio Road. The friends of the Connellsville Road now ask, Do the Pennsylvania Railroad Company carry Pittsburgh freights at through rates? So far otherwise, it is averred they will carry Ohio and Indiana freights east for less than freight starting at Pittsburgh.

PITTSBUEGH AND ST. LOU

The St. Louis Democrat has been thrown into that ecstatic condition which produces prophecy. Two facts conspired thereto. One, orders from this city for 30,000 tons of ore from Iron Mountain. The other, the discovery of coal, excellent in quality for making iron, on the Illinois side of the river, near the famous iron deposits. Hereupon the prediction is ventured that presently no iron will be made at Pittsburgh, and that most of the iron used in this country will be made at St. Louis.

When our contemporary descends from its prophetic elevation we beg to suggest that this is a very extensive country, and as it fills with people the demand for iron must steadily increase. All the iron used will be made neither at Pittsburgh, nor St. Louis, nor in both cities. Employment will be found, in most departments of industry, for all who may be willing to work. We shall be glad when manufactures of various kinds, iron included, take deep root at the West and South. Then the Policy of the Government touching Home Protection will be stable and patriotic. A generous rivalry will be superinduced, of which the Democrat, as yet, gives no token. The prosperity of Pittsburgh will not excite the envy of St. Louis, but all the centers of population will strive to see which can do most to subserve individual happiness and promote the general welfare.

THE UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD.

It is almost reduced to a certainty that the Eastern Division, in effect beginning at St. Louis, will be a distinct and independent line, competing all the way through with what was originally designated as the main trunk.

The Cedar Rapids Railroad was recently opened through Iowa to Council Bluffs, on the Missouri, opposite Omaha. This gives the Union Pacific proper, an important advantage. Chicago has now a direct line, 800 miles in length, to western Nebraska. If the Missouri was bridged at Omaha, no change of cars would be required to go by way of Chicago to the western verge of Nebraska. Furthermore, as the Union Pacific has 200 miles the start of the Eastern Division, and is being built as rapidly as its rival, it must reach the Pacific some time the first.

THE New York Tribune is importing printing paper for its own use. We are almost provoked to ask how it reconciles this with its preaching, but will only express the hope that the public will be informed of the results of the venture.—Commercial.

The Tribune can as consistently import printing paper as Mr. BRIGHAM or any iron master in Pittsburgh can wear Irish linen, French broadcloth or an English watch. Men of sense advocate such systems as they believe to be wisest, and are prepared to stand by them. If those systems are rejected, with perfect consistency, they do the best they can under those that obtain. There is no mystery in this to boggle any man who is competent to weigh a system or regulate a practice.

Not a ream of printing paper was imported last year. The duty, as the currency was, proved absolutely prohibitory. The American paper manufacturers had no body to consult but themselves in fixing prices, and, as there was no overplus in the supply, they doubtless had no reason to complain of the market. If the printers were pinched they were not.

THE industrial classes of this country are under great obligations to the Hon. JOHN COVODE for the intelligence, industry and tact with which he has labored to harmonize differences at Washington and adjust the details of the tariff bill to the necessities of the producing classes.

Gen. SIMON CAMERON'S services, in this particular, have likewise been of great value.

THE old Pub. Func. JAMES BUCHANAN, was entertained with a State dinner at Philadelphia, a day or two since. The crowd in attendance, though small, was made up of the peculiarly representative men of the defunct Democratic party, such patriots, for instance, as EDWARD INGERSOLL, RICHARD VAUX and Dr. EVANS.

Gov. COX, of Ohio, peremptorily declines re-nomination. He urges "duty to his family, his profession, and his private affairs" as his justification for withdrawing. He has made an efficient officer, and the people of Ohio will deeply regret his decision.

AN OFFICIAL CONTRADICTION.

In an article in our columns yesterday Mr. GARRETT, the President of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, was charged with having refused to accept an offer of compromise and a withdrawal of opposition to the Connellsville Road, upon the part of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, the only stipulation being that he would make a certain favorable arrangement for Pittsburgh freights. He at once telegraphed upon the subject, and his reply is here given.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 28, 1867.

W. O. Hughart, President P. & C. Railroad Co.:—I have your telegram of this date. The Hon. John Covode called upon me recently to invite the attention of parties in Maryland to the vital necessity to the bituminous coal interests that the present rate of duty, viz: one dollar and fifty cents per ton on similar foreign coals, should be maintained. He also stated that he was much interested in the tariff to be fixed on a certain description of iron. He stated, incidentally, that he was interested in coal property on the line of the Pittsburgh and Connellsville road, and made inquiry regarding the present status of the legal controversy in reference to the charter of that Company. I called his attention to the facts on this subject as stated in my recent address, and advised him to urge, in view of the clear justice of the case and the interest of the State of Pennsylvania, the repeal of the unconstitutional act rescinding the chartered rights of the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Company. I stated to him that the subject of charges for transportation would be regulated very fully and practically by the competition of the Pennsylvania Central and the Baltimore and Ohio Companies, and that the only real antagonist to the construction of the Connellsville road was the Pennsylvania Central. Mr. Covode did not approach me as the agent or representative of the Pennsylvania road in any form.

If the Pennsylvania Company desires to make any proposition that can lead to the withdrawal of their opposition to the repeal of the rescinding act at Harrisburg, I am sure all parties interested in the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Company will be most happy to receive and consider such proposition.

It is stated by leading gentlemen from your State that the sole difficulty at Harrisburg is the persistent and vigorous hostility of the Pennsylvania Road, by which that Company has determined to prevent Pittsburgh and Western Pennsylvania from obtaining this direct and additional outlet and competing line. J. W. GARRETT, President.

ANTERIOR to the rebellion the Southern people did not enjoy a very enviable reputation as mild-mannered and peaceable citizens. Since the war they have fearfully retrograded, and approach nearer barbarism than their advocates in the North are willing to admit. Among them human life is held to be of little or no value, and cold-blooded murders are of frequent occurrence. The journalists publish the particulars with as much coolness and nonchalance as our reporters describe a street fight or ordinary case of assault and battery, as the following account of a horrid deed, clipped from an exchange, will show:

"Mr. B. F. Murphy, an industrious citizen of Shreveport, was killed near Arcadia, La., by a Mr. Jones. It appears that Murphy's brother and the son of Jones had had some words, and as the two were returning home they were met on the road by the elder Jones, who inquired which of them had insulted his son. The deceased replied that it was his brother, and as he was a married man, he, the deceased, would be responsible. Upon this assertion Jones immediately fired upon him, killing him almost instantly."

IN Detroit, on Saturday last, a young woman named Le Ferre, whose parents at one time resided in Erie, Pa., died from exposure in a snow storm. Her parents died when she was a mere child, and left her with a family named Rattigan to raise. She grew up to be a beautiful woman, moved in good circles of society, and in an erring hour, was seduced. Her guardians discovering the fact had no mercy, and turned her upon the world without home or friends. She wandered about till from exhaustion, she sank upon the roadside and perished.

THE American Colonization Society is now endeavoring to raise $50,000, for the purpose of fitting out the ship Golconda to be used in May next for the dispatching of freedmen to Liberia. Nearly one thousand freedmen are already booked for the voyage.

THE Californians are in a muddle. They have cut down a big tree for exhibition at the Paris Fair, but no ship is large enough to carry it across the ocean.

THERE has been introduced into the Wisconsin Legislature a bill increasing to five thousand dollars the salaries of the Supreme Judges of that State.

WE see it stated in one of our exchanges that the Detroit Post, CARL SCHURZ's paper, is groaning under the weight of a $50,000 mortgage.

THE great sacrifice of the Crosby Opera House, by the lucky winner, Lee' gives just grounds for doubting the honesty of the lottery.

A STATE election takes place in Connecticut on the first Monday of the coming April.

SNOW recently fell, for the sixth time in a century, in Louisiana.

The Pittsburgh Commercial and the Investigating Committee.

We have heretofore noticed that the editor and publisher, Mr. Brigham, of the Commercial, was summoned, whilst in this city, stopping at the Lochiel Hotel, to appear before the Investigation Committee; and that in compliance with that demand, he appeared before the aforesaid Committee, and solemnly testified that he had no knowledge whatever of any improper means having been used by any person or persons to affect the election of United States Senator; and that at the same time he declared before that body that he did not know the writer of an article published in his paper, signed "X," and headed an "Inside View."

This closed the examination of Mr. Brigham, and it was supposed that his paper would cease to publish misrepresentations on the subject, but we have been mistaken, and judging from a recent article in his journal, he seems to be as unfair and bitter as he was before his appearance before that Committee.

A gentleman (who ought to and does know the fact) has called our attention to this subject, and informs us that this same gentleman, Mr. Bingham, importuned officers of the House and some members of the Investigating Committee to certify to mileage for him, from and returning to Pittsburgh, when, in fact, he was subpoenaed here. This the Committee rejected and refused to pay. This may, to some extent, account for the assaults and false charge brought against the several members who composed that Committee. The State saved some thirty dollars by this refusal to comply with this request, and we submit to the public at large this fact, and ask whether such men ought to talk about corruption.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

—The subject of newspapers establishing telegraph lines of their own is actively discussed at the east, and a company is now in progress of formation.

Specie Basis—What It Is—The True Road to Prosperity.

EDITORS PITTSBURGH GAZETTE:—The numerous articles in your paper on the condition of the country induced me to offer you one more.

Specie is the best representative of the true basis of a nation's prosperity, because it has among all nations ab ut the same intrinsic value, and is used, the world over, at that value, as an equivalent for the wants and luxuries of mankind. Its stability gives it its value as a representative of the true basis, and for that reason the nation which has the most specie is generally considered the most prosperous. This is a grand mistake. The nation, which produces the most in the greatest variety, the cheapest and consumes the most in the greatest variety at the least cost—each individual producing and consuming all he is capable of—is the most prosperous, no difference whether specie, or something else represents that prosperity. In the United States the circulation is doubled, and so are prices, because the producing and consuming have not changed. Large numbers of persons are necessarily unemployed at the present time; the consequence of the nation consuming or buying more than it produces, hence fears for the future. Let the present production and consumption be doubled, and we have arrived at the specie basis, whether gold, or greenbacks, be the representative basis. How can the production be doubled. By so encouraging home industry that every man can be a producer and liberal consumer. The number, energy, intelligence, and ingenuity of the American people, the variety of climate, soil, mineral, and vegitable productions, need but the corresponding variety in agricultural, manufacturing and kindred pursuits to make the United States not only the most prosperous nation in the world, but a truly independent one. Let the farmer raise produce to supply the manufacturers and operatives in, if possible, his neighborhood, and get the articles he needs from them, if possible. By this means labor would be in demand, and how far capital could then control labor, the manufactures and their employees for the past four years can answer. Let there be as great a variety of labor as the natural resources of the country, in every part North and South, requires, and every one will be the maker of his own fortune, be busy, prosperous and happy. But to buy of nations who are on a specie basis, while we are not, and by so buying keep part of our own people idle is the road to bankruptcy and ruin; while the largest production and consumption to each individual at the cheapest rate is the short line express to specie basis and prosperity. —The Charlottesville (Va.) Chronicle says: "Aunt Milly," a colored woman, formerly belonging to Captain James Harris, residing near Rockfish Gap, in Nelson county, died at the residence of that gentleman on the 7th instant, in the one hundred and thirty-sixth year of her age. She was born in 1731, in the beginning of the reign of George II. She was a cotemporary of Pope, Swift and Bolingbroke, though probably she never heard of them.

While the delighted recipient of this new honor was in one of the clerk's rooms to pay the fee for the necessary certificate, Hon. Jeremiah S. Black came in hastily, asking for charge, so as to make a given sum. As none of the clerks could do this, the colored lawyer proffered his aid for the purpose, asking, at the same time, if he had the honor of addressing the Hon. Thadeus Stevens. Judge Black recolled, saying: "No! no!" and rapidly made his exit, without accepting the monetary accommodation proffered by the new-made member of the bar."

READ THE CERTIFICATE OF

REV. R. T. FLUALIN.

TO DR. HOSTETTER:—Dear Sir:—This is to certify that I was taken with the dyspepsia a year ago last March, and for a period of eight months, was one of the most miserable creatures the ever inhabited—not being able to eat, drink or sleep, and was compelled to walk the floor incessantly. I was nearly deprived of my reason, and hope had entirely left me, all the efforts made for my recovery having proved fruitless.

By the first of November, 1865, I had become so weak and feeble that I could scarcely stand alone, and, to all appearance, would soon die. At this time (having read your advertisement,) my wife prevailed upon me to try your Bitters. A bottle was procured, and, strange to say, I soon commenced recovering. I have taken four bottles, and am enjoying as good health now as could be expected for one of my age (about sixty years). I have no doubt that it was your Bitters alone, under Divine Providence, that effected this wonderful cure. R. T. FLUALIN.

ANOTHER QUACK DOCTOR.—The undersigned has been studying and practicing a little less or over forty years, to try to find out the cheapest and the surest plan of curing the different diseases in that noble animal, and the companion of Man—the Horse. This can be published to the people of Allegheny and other adjoining counties, that he can, with confidence, assert that he can cure all curable diseases, and many others, on a new plan not before known in this part of the country. About two years ago I got a receipt from a gentleman from Iowa, for curing the RINGBONE, on a new plan without the aid of medicine. I have tested its qualities for two years and can now assure the public that there is no mistake. My charge is FIVE DOLLARS each for each foot affected and give a guarantee to remove the money if a cure is not performed in from two to six weeks, according to the age of the complaint. The Chronic Complaint, generally termed the Chronic Cough, generally brought on by drinking cold water when hot, or others by dust, hay. This disease I can cure when on the very verge of taking the Heaves. In the shortness of ten days. Lost spring I attended six valuable horses near all at one time, of that dreadful disease known as the LUNG FEVER, which is sure death if not properly treated. I did not lose a single horse. I would tell receipts to a few persons at a distance for a reasonable amount, and engage to learn them the proper treatment and medicine.

This book is the result of life-long working experience in gardening, and gives abundant directions, commencing with the selection of suitable land, all the way up to the production of all sorts of vegetables, both in the open air and by the forcing process.

THE AMERICAN HORTICULTURAL MANUAL, 1867. Illustrated. New York: Orange Jud & Co., 41 Park Row. Pittsburgh: for sale by John Knox, 31 Liberty street.

SCHOOLDAY DIALOGUES. Compiled by Alexander Clark, A. M. Philadelphia: G. W. Gangbaday & Co.

Mr. Clark is now pastor of the First Methodist Church of this city. The book is a compilation, from original sources, of dialogues for use in schools. Played Out Wells.

The Oil City Register gives a history of the abandoned oil wells in the Venango region, and concludes as follows: These are seemingly the failures. But they are no more numerous than the deserted claims of the gold diggings on the Pacific side on our continent were during the first few years of their development. In both cases, by the wise natural laws of compensation, stand out in bright relief the successes. A less number of failures to obtain good production, will have occurred during the past shining season than any previous one. With remunerative prices many of these deserted oil wells will be thoroughly cleaned out, and by the application of greater skill and more fitting machinery be made highly productive. In many localities the experiment has been tried, and the result proves to be highly satisfactory. With the adoption of the petroleum products to other uses besides illuminating, and a demand created thereby, equal to the supply, these wells will be in demand. The landowners are now forfeiting all the leases they can get hold of already, and in a short time, we predict that deserted oil wells will be few and far between. For we are well satisfied that with the proper application of improved mechanical forces, four-fifth of the deserted wells could be made to pay handsomely, thus proving that the vast expenditures of labor and money upon their erection was not wholly in vain, and will benefit somebody.

Furnace Accident.

The Allentown Evening Dispatch of Fri, day says: Last night at about eleven o'clock a painful accident occurred at furnace number one, of the Roberts' Iron Company, in the First Ward. While the men were engaged in casting "pigs" the molten iron suddenly spouted from the breast of the furnace, and before the hands in the immediate vicinity could get out of harm's way several of them were very badly burned. John Serfass had most of his clothing burnt from his body and was considerably burnt about the lower portion of his person. Michael McBride, in endeavoring to escape from the fierce stream, met the unfortunate of running against a pillar with such force as to render him for a long time insensible.

Festive.

Undoubtedly one of the best, if not the very best places in this city where one can feast and recuperate the corporeal portion of exhausted humanity, is at Fricker's dining saloon, No. 25 St. Clair street. The most sumptuous fare imaginable is to be had there at any and all times at that festive place. A hasty plate of soup for the hurried business man or employee, who cannot stay for more than a dozen spoonfuls, or a supper fit for a duke can be gotten up with equal fitness and almost with equal dispatch. Game in all shapes, and exquisite in all; oysters so luscious that they would tempt the pagan epicures from all their old time luxuries to try one of them; everything palatable and tempting, getting up in styles to suit beside himself with bewildered envy, are promptly and satisfactorily availa ble at Fricker's. Go there.

An Episode.

The following is from the Zanesville Times

Among the marriages occurring in this city last week was one of a highly respectable young woman to an individual who was a southerner, and at the beginning of the war a slave, notwithstanding the fact of his having, to all appearance, no negro blood in his veins; a curious history no doubt, might be traced to this man's birth and parentage; the episode we have given proving but one of the thousand romances of the war.

Governor Gearys Appointments.

Governor Geary on Saturday, made the following Philadelphia appointments:

Harbor Master—George J. Weaver.
Deputy Master—Major A. R. Calhoun.
Leather Inspector—Major H. J. Rife.
Bark Inspector—Dr. Thos. S. Reed.
Sealer of Weights and Measures—Northern district, Lieut. N. Taylor; sothern district, George W. Schaffer.
Superintendent of Powder Magazine—Parkhurst McLaughlin.

Recovering.

—Henry Streng, the gentleman in Allegheny who was shot and severely killed some time since by his son-in-law, Jacob Baltzener, is slowly recovering from the effects of the desperate wound he received at the hands of his scoundrel. He is now considered out of danger and will be able to move about shortly. The daughter, Baltzeiler's wife, has entirely recovered from her slight injuries, and Baltzeiler's desperation is likely to result seriously to only himself. The immediate cause of his action is involved in no small mystery as ever. His motives will probably be made apparent at the trial.

The Galaxy.

—From Pittock, opposite the Postoffice, we have received "The Galaxy" for February 1st. This is a remarkably good number, being one of the best of this fresh and sparkling fortnightly that has appeared. Pittock also sent us Harper's Weekly and Frank Leslie for last Saturday. Every periodical worth having, all the leading daily and weekly papers, and almost everything else that a well regulated mind desires, can be obtained at Pittock's.

All Found.

—The horses and mules stolen a few nights since at Haysville and Sewickley have all been recovered, some of them having returned of themselves to the stables of their owners. They all seem to have been turned loose in Allegheny, their captors apparently becoming frightened at the undertaking they had on hand. No trace of the theives has yet been found.

A Needed Invention.

—Thomas D. Hall has invented a railroad switch that should have the attention of railroad men. By a very simple arrangement an electric current rings a bell continuously the moment the switch is moved from connection with the main line, thus sounding a warning, not only to the watchman, but to all within hearing.

An Accident.

—At about ten o'clock on Saturday night, an old man, while passing along Smithfield street, slipped and fell, receiving severe injuries about the head. He was taken into the drug store of Messrs. Reid & Yoder, corner of Strawberry alley and Smithfield street. He was partially unconscious, and was removed to his residence in a carriage.

Not Out of Danger.

Mr. David Russell, the gentleman who was so severely injured by falling through a trap door in the fourth story of the GAZETTE building, a week ago, is not, we regret to say, considered out of danger. He has been removed to Passavant's Infirmary, where he is receiving such aid as his case admits of, but the paralysis of the lower portion of his body still continues. There is now at times a very slight degree of sensation in the paralyzed limbs, but other symptoms are of so discouraging a nature as to render ultimate recovery by no means certain.

Off the Track.

—We learn that on Friday evening last a car on a freight train on the Pan Handle Railroad jumped the track in the Corks Run tunnel. The passenger trains were delayed several hours by the accident.

MY POLITICAL PLATFORM.

Kind friends and patrons all, I ask your close attention.
I have a stock of Boots on hand, thousands of them!
Which I can well afford to sell at the very lowest prices.
A lot of Rubber Boots and Shoes, of French and German leather,
Which some would be afraid to wear, in coldest of winter weather.
My Ladies' Boots are of the best, it really is surprising,
That I can sell so very cheap, while prices still are rising.
My stock is of the very best the trade did ever produce,
My Shoes are far the cheapest since the prices I did reduce.
Then seek your own advantage and come to me and buy,
And when my stock is all sold out I'll get a fresh supply.
Since money is so plenty now, and greenbacks in good credit,
Do come and buy some brass bed Shoes, you never will regret it.
Cold winter now is at the door, when the old are apt them to freeze,
Then call at the popular Shoe Palace Emporium, Nos. 25 and 28 Fifth street.

EXTRACT of a LETTER from a MEDICAL GENTLEMAN at MADRAS dated May, 1851:

"Tell LEA & PERRINS that their SAUCE is highly esteemed in India, and is, in my opinion, the most palatable as well as the most wholesome SAUCE that is made."

The success of this most delicious and unrivalled condiment having caused many unprincipled dealers to apply the name to SPURIOUS COMPOUNDS, LEA & PERRINS feel it necessary to request to see that the name of LEA & PERRINS are upon the WRAPPER, LABEL, STOPPER and BOTTLE.

LOCAL NEWS ON FIRST AND THIRD PAGES.

The Carnival Yesterday.

Notwithstanding the bitter cold of yesterday, a large and anxious crowd assembled on the Central Skating Park, to witness the preliminary carnival introducing the grand National contest which is to signalize the week. The performance justified the expectations of those present, for the feats performed on the glittering surface were something unheard of in all icy experiences here. They were marvellous, and elicited the warmest token of admiration. Among the skaters present were Miss Girty Frothingham, of Rochester, New York; Miss Kate Forsyth, of the Ninth ward, (and not of Portland, Maine, as mistakenly reported,) Mr. John Engler, jr., of Jersey City and Mr. W. H. Bishop, of Brooklyn, New York. All of these skaters executed wonderful things too numerous to mention. Of the parties entered for the contest did not arrive in time to participate yesterday. Some of them, comprising the Chicago party, being snow bound. They all arrived last evening, however.

This afternoon the ladies' contest will take place. A close battle may be anticipated. Children under twelve years of age are admitted during the week at twenty-five cents each.

We cannot forbear calling particular attention to little Miss Francis, of New York. She is only seven years of age, but is a most wonderful skater, performing feats unattainable to many an older expert. She will appear every afternoon during the week.

An Alleged Dead Beat.

Edward Duffy residing on Poplar alley yesterday made information before Alderman Lynch charging his son in law Thomas Ellis with surety of the peace. It is alleged that some time since the accused married the prosecutor's daughter and immediately began to "sponge" off the old folks, hanging around his father-in-laws house and utterly refusing to do any thing for himself. Yesterday the old man told Thomas that he wanted him to leave, Thomas grew angry, according to Duffy's statement and raised a hatchet threatening to split the head in if his laws head. The parties met at the office yesterday afternoon and settled the matter.

Cross Suits.—Annie Rees, domestic in the Morgan House, in the Fifth ward, yesterday made information before Alderman Taylor, charging Thomas Morgan, proprietor of the United States Hotel on Penn street, Fifth ward, with assault and battery. She alleged that Morgan entered the Morgan House and struck her. Thomas, on the other hand, made information against his prosecutrix for the same offence, charging her with pitching into him as soon as he entered the house and forcing him to beat a retreat. Both parties were held for Court.

Another Man Victimized.—On Saturday a lumber merchant from another part of the State, while visiting this city, got into by and forbidden paths and visited some questionable places of resort on "the hill," in the Seventh ward. On retiring to his hotel he discovered his pocketbook had been abstracted from his pantaloons. The pocketbook contained $25 in money and a promissory note for $500. No clue as to his money was obtained and the gentleman left the city considerably poorer for his visit to the fair ones.

Admitted to Practice.—Yesterday, in the United States Court, on motion of Hon. S. A. Purviance, Isaac Ash, Esq., was admitted to practice before that bench. Mr. Ash is an accomplished and able legal gentleman, and although not long admitted to the bar has made rapid and steady advancement in his profession. His office is at Oil City, where he has built up a very creditable practice. We wish him success.

Deserter Arrested.—John Sallmon, a deserter from the United States army, was yesterday committed to jail subject to the orders of Major C. F. Smiley, recruiting officer at this rendezvous.

Sent Away.—J. M. Hartzell, a deserter from the army, who has been confined in the jail, was yesterday delivered over to sergeant Reufe, and sent to his regiment.

FROM MEMPHIS.

Ex-Gov. Harris Gets a Recommend—Catholic Fair—The Quota of Murders and Robberies.

MEMPHIS, January 28.—The Chamber of Commerce, of Memphis, yesterday passed resolutions recommending ex-Gov. Harris, now a refugee in Liverpool, to the confidence of the commercial world.

At the Catholic Fair, held on Saturday night, the cane for the most popular county official was voted to Sheriff Winters. The votes cost one dollar each, and forty thousand eight hundred and thirty-six votes were cast. The cane originally cost $85.

Frank Murphy, a colored man, was murdered yesterday by a drunken negro, who was in jail.

Policeman Boughner was severely stabbed on Saturday night by a drunken drayman whom he was attempting to arrest. His life was saved by a memorandum book.

Hiram Skinner, of Cambridge, Ohio, was robbed of a gold watch and three hundred dollars on the steamer Mississippi, yesterday morning, while asleep in his stateroom.

The Committee appointed by the Chamber of Commerce to test the constitutionality of the cotton tax, reported against the test to-day, owing to the apathy of merchants and planters.

A special to the Avalanche from Little Rock, Ark., to-day, says a call, signed by citizens of Arkansas throughout the State, who served in the Federal army, has been made for a Convention at Van Buren on the 20th of February, to protest against the overthrow of the present State Government.

—The bill requiring the Secretary of the Treasury to sell the surplus gold of the treasury is still hanging fire in the Finance Committtte of the Senate. It is now urged that the Senate should extend the length of notice of all public sales to at least fifteen days, and limit the amount to be sold on any one occasion to five millions; otherwise it will be in the power of the Secretary of the Treasury to sell in sums sufficiently large to disturb the money market, and derange the prices of securities materially. The authority to sell should also be limited to the excess over at least, a hundred millions, as the more gold the treasury holds the better it will be for the credit of the Government and the general welfare of the nation. As soon as the gold bill is disposed of, the question of the currency should engage the attention of Congress.

—The slight panic which existed in New York last week, in consequence of the failure of Meyer & Co. bankers, and the troubles of the Bank of North America, has partially subsided, and all is comparatively quiet on Wall street again. It seems, according to the New York Tribune, that the brokers in question had overdrawn their account in the Bank of North America for a sum considerably above $20,000, and Mr. Velverton, relying upon their probity, had allowed their checks to be certified. Failure to make good the promise to the bank within proper time resulted in the distress. The Tribune adds:

"An investigation has been made, and it is ascertained that Mr. Velverton is not a defaulter of the bank in any form. The bank has still assurance that its loss will be made good. Should it prove a total loss, it will only absorb about one half its surplus. In this connection we cannot refrain from once more calling attention to the dangerous practice of 'certifying checks,' a favor often granted to merchants, and only granted to facilitate the enormous transactions growing out of 'brokers' accounts,' or, in other words, acting as a clearing house for speculations, which are so near gambling that it is not worth while to discuss the difference between them."

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, } MONDAY, January 28, 1867. }

The produce markets continue very dull and inflated, being entirely devoid of life or animation, and what is worse still, there are no indications at present of any immediate improvement. It is true, generally speaking, stocks of all kinds are tight, though, nevertheless, consider ably in excess of the demand, and as buyers limit their purchases to the lowest possible limit, and there is a total absence almost of anything like a speculative feeling, we have but very few round lot operations to record.

GRAIN—Wheat is dull and nominally unchanged; sale of 1 car white, last week at $3. Oats dull—may be quoted at 48@49, on track, and 51 to 52, in store. Prime Penna and Ohio Rye is selling at $2.20. Sale of 1 car shelled Corn, in store, at 80c; small sales in store at 75 to 80. Barley is too irregular to quot: corr ctly, there being considerable difference in quality.

FLOUR—Is quiet and dull but unchanged. We continue to quote at $12.25 to 12.50 for standard Spring Wheat brands; $13.50 to 14.50 for Winter Wheat, and $15 to 17.50 for fancy brands. Sale of 50 bbls Winter Wheat at $13.80; also, 100 bgs cornmeal at $1.80 per cwt—to arrive. Rye Flour is quiet at $7.75 to 8.00 per bbl, and 1 Buckwheat at $5.50 to 5.75 per cwt.

PROVISIONS.—Bacon is quiet and unchanged—small sales at 12 for shoulders; 16½ to 17 for Sugar Cured Hams. Prime kettle rendered Lard is held at 15 to 15½, but Mess Pork is quoted at $20½ to $21 Dressed Hogs 7½ to 8.

BUTTER—Sale of 6 bbls fair Roll Butter at 29; and 9 half bbls do prime, at 31. Common and inferior is in good supply and dull.

EGGS—Fresh packed in fair demand and may be quoted at 37@38.

DRIED FRUIT—Is in demand. Small sales in store at 9 to 10 for Apples, and 16@20 for Peaches—sale of 50 bbls Apples at 9.

SEEDS—There is a steady demand for Flaxseed at the standing price, $2.50, and but little offering. No movement in Timothy or Clover seeds.

APPLES—Are in fair demand and we can report regular sales, in store, at $3.50 to $4.50 per bbl, as to quality.

BEANS—In rather better supply, and unchanged—$2.50 to $2.75 per bushel for prime small white.

POTATOES—Are brought in, in consequence of diminished arrivals, is a shade firmer, and may now be quoted at $2@2 25 per ton, the latter figure only for strictly prime.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, } MONDAY, January 28, 1867. }

CRUDE—The market continues dull and neglected, there being little or no demand either for present or future delivery, and prices are little more than nominal. Smith's Ferry oil is selling on the spot, at 7¾ to 7¾, packages returned, and 12¼ to 12½ packages included—the latter for Virginia oil, (37 to 41 gravity) for April delivery, at 9½. Venango oil, for spring delivery, is held at 9c generally, though there was a sale last week at 8½; and indeed, there are but few buyers at anything over 8 cents.

REFINED—There is no improvement to note in the demand for hundred oil, and the market is dull and unchanged. The following sales were made last Saturday evening: 1000 for this month, 2,000 for February, Philadelphia, at 28; 500 for May, at 32; 500 for June, at 33; and 500 for July, at 34. March is quoted at 30@31, and April at 31. On spot, quotations may be fairly given at 22 to 22½ on cars here, and 28 to 28½, delivered in Philadelphia. For Free oil, the demand is limited, being restricted entirely to filling small orders and supplying the retail trade.

ARRIVALS—The following arrivals of oil were reported to-day.

RIVER NEWS.

The weather continues very cold, and the prospects at present for a break-up are about as remote as ever. There is nothing transpiring at the landing worthy of notice, and it presents a very gloomy appearance. Quite a number of flat-boats are aground on the Allegheny wharf, and the Brownsville mail for Parkersburg wharf-boats are lying high and dry on the Monongahela landing.

An attempt was made yesterday by some parties to blow up the ice in the Allegheny river below the Suspension Bridge, by means of a bomb-shell, but it proved a failure, it being impossible to "touch it off." We understand the attempt will be renewed again this morning; and, it is to be hoped with more success. It is thought that in this way a channel can be made, and removed to a place of safety in case of a flood.

The Upper Mississippi river pilots have issued a protest against the erection of a railroad bridge above the steamboat landing at Quincy, as suggested by the projectors of the scheme, and recommend a point below the public levee, where the channel is permanent, and will not be narrowed nor obstruct navigation. They also protest against a draw of only one hundred and sixty feet in width.

The Memphis and St. Louis packets have a line in plain view near the clerk, which reads thus: "Free of charge for all contractors.—No free or half fare passes will be issued at this office." How are you, dead beats!

The M. V. T. Company has decided to increase their capital stock to $500,000, of which the old stockholders take $100,000, and the sale of that remaining will increase further capacity for doing business. It is the intention of the officers of the company to offer a portion of the new stock for sale in the market. We understand that the payments will be made comparatively easy.

We find the follow additional information in regard to the Platte Valley, in a late Omaha paper:

From the protest in the case of the Platte Valley, it appears that while James Hall, sailor of the pilots, was at the wheel, the boat sheered, and before he could control her, ran directly upon the wreck of the Jeff. Thompson, which lifted her partially out of water. The clerk's office and safe were the valuable papers and moneys of the boat. The special deposits of passengers were one of the money and the passengers in the safe amounted to $12,000 or $15,000, and had $5,000 in gold. Mr. A. C. Isaac, the clerk, rushed to the cabin door, and the water began to enter the cabin and secured the safe under his handkerchief. He was unable to get further into money, and barely had time to jump out of the window, and the water filled the office and cabins. One of the passengers, on receiving his money, burst into tears at the sight of the loss of the boat were lost. The present trip was very promising. The cargo on board is estimated to have been worth $500,000. The officers never had a better prospect, and expected to clear $5,000 by the trip.

—Says the Cincinnati Commercial, of Sunday:

An unusually large quantity of merchandise was landed down in the levee yesterday, notwithstanding it was very cold, very and navigable with great difficulty. Poor horse-flesh suffered considerably by falling on the ice. Some of the boats were also discharged on the crown of the wharf, it being almost impossible for horses and drays to descend the grade. Mr. Sam Hildreth, who came up from Louisville on the General Buell, reports the river open at the heart of the Cumberland, and the Nora and Argosy working through the canal when the General Buell left Louisville. He says there is no ice to detain ascending steamers between here and Louisville—the Buell having made the run from Lawrenceburg here in a little over 16 hours. The Louisville left New Orleans for Louisville on Thursday evening, with 700 tons and a fair trip of freight. Capt. J. S. Shunk, of the Emerald, received a dispatch from Capt. Frank Talbot last night, relative to the condition of the canal, in which he says: "There is six feet in the canal the last week, and eight inches thick. Don't think the Emerald can get through." On receiving this dispatch Capt. Shunk ordered her to remain here. The Emerald will leave, however, as soon as she can pass through the canal.

In speaking of the steamer Argonaut No. 2, that recently passed the New Albany, the Louisville Journal says:

This boat is now lying at the mouth of the canal. Our good opinion of her has been repaired, and she is perfectly water-tight and sound. Her pilot-house has been taken off, and her chimneys lowered, but with these exceptions, and the fact that the steam-drum on the larboard side were cut away for the fire, the Argonaut No. 2 is an ordinarily good boat. She left Louisville and Cincinnati and repaired. Why a boat that has been raised and in good order, with master-builder Wishart, and good for years of service, should have been abandoned we cannot see.
